Mamie Hughes

2010

Award of Distinction Recipient

Mamie Hughes

What inspires you? Why?

I am inspired when I see work that needs to be done and there is little interest shown by those who could improve the situations or conditions.

I believe in doing that which improves the quality of life—not just for my own interest, but those around me and the entire community of which I am a part.

Who inspires you? Why?

The person who is willing to help those who are facing situations over which they have no control inspires me. The one who has the courage to speak out AND then be willing to join with other to accomplish the effort.

Tell us about a challenge you've had and how you overcame it?

CHALLENGE is a motivator. Organizing a team; recognizing that there is no "I" there and finding those who share the vision and who will find others to aid in the effort, i.e., people who were affected by construction of Highway 71 called for bringing together groups from the neighborhood with all of the decision makers who needed to hear how their work affected their lives

What has been your greatest accomplishment?

GREATEST ACCOMPLISHMENT has been in work that is preserving of the legacy of the 18th and Vine Historic District. I was pleased that we were to preserve six (6) houses which were in danger of demolition, thus loss of the Historic District listing on the National Register of Historic Places.

What advice do you want to share with other women?

My advice I wish to share with other women is that we must believe in the task with which we set out to do. We must be willing to listen; learn and be willing to work with others so that you may be willing to lead.

A Chinese proverb which has inspired, motivated and encouraged me is knowing that: "One who says it cannot be done should not interrupt a WOMAN who is doing it."

Each year, the Missouri Women's Council solicits nominations of individuals and/or organizations that have made a significant impact upon women and their families. Many outstanding individuals and organizations have helped shape Missouri and continue to contribute their talents and skills to improve and enhance the quality of life in the state. The council has established the Award of Distinction to recognize, honor and celebrate these achievements.

Mamie Hughes was awarded the Missouri Women's Council 2010 Award of Distinction. Governor Jay Nixon presented her the award at the Governor's Conference on Economic Development during the Governor's Awards Luncheon held on September 16th, 2010.

In her commitment to the community, she pushed for an increase in economic development in the 18th & Vine District, and serves as member Emeritus on the board of the Samuel U. Rodgers Community Health Center, also serves on the advisory board of Friendship House/Catherine's Place and the Historic Jazz Foundation. As Ombudsman for the Bruce R. Watkins Drive, she is also recognized as a woman who has "changed the heart of the city."

A founding member of the Central Exchange, a charter member of the Jackson Legislature, a member of the Women's Public Service Network, the Missouri Holocaust Education and Awareness Commission; Mrs. Hughes served as Chair of the Mid-America Regional Council and was involved in the plan to install immediate emergency services, and aided in establishing the "Meals on Wheels" program.

Mamie Hughes is one of the only women in Kansas City who actually has a bridge named after her. During the 71 Highway road construction, her assistance with negotiations on behalf of the residents within the area inspired the city to come together to make the project successful. She calls it a 'people bridge.' It's for all of us and signifies people closing lines.

Mrs. Hughes has raised five children who have gone on to be doctors, lawyers, judges, prosecutors and public servants. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Fisk University.
